

ASI — Key Insights

- The total number of factories increased from 119,494 in 1992-93 to 257,391 in 2023-24, showing a substantial increase over the period.
- 2023-24 recorded the highest total number of factories, with 257,391 factories.
- 1992-93 recorded the lowest total number of factories, with 119,494 factories.
- Factory presence varies considerably across states/UTs in 2023-24. Tamil Nadu has the highest number of factories, while Lakshadweep has the lowest among the states/UTs with available data.
- Tamil Nadu leads the top 10 states/UTs with 40,121 factories, followed by Gujarat with 33,311 and Maharashtra with 26,539. The top 10 states show a strong concentration of factories in a few major industrial states.
- Lakshadweep has the lowest reported factory count with 4 factories, followed by Andaman & Nicobar Islands with 13 and Ladakh with 29.
- Manufacture of Food Products had the highest number of factories in 2023-24 with 41,572 factories, followed by Manufacture of Other Non-metallic Mineral Products with 29,840 and Manufacture of Textiles with 18,052.
- Factory distribution is concentrated across several major industries. Food Products has the largest share at approximately 16.15%, followed by Other Non-metallic Mineral Products at 11.59% and Textiles at 7.01%.
- The leading industry varies across states/UTs. Manufacture of Food Products was the leading industry in 11 states/UTs, while Other Non-metallic Mineral Products led in 12 states/UTs.
- Gujarat experienced the largest increase in total factories, rising by 18,448 between 2008-09 and 2023-24. Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh recorded the next largest increases, with 13,999 and 11,206 additional factories respectively.
- Only three states/UTs show a decline in total factory count between 2008-09 and 2023-24: Andhra Pradesh (-892), Delhi (-253), and Chandigarh (-54).